INFORMATION ABOUT PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA CARRIED OUT IN ITALY

According to law 675/1996 AIM Dmc - Aim Group, with registered office in Milan, Via Ripamonti 129 (The Company), as treatment holder, inform you last the providing of your personal data is voluntary, but non acceptance of personal data processing will prevent your participation to the congress. The personal data are treated for purposes correlated or instrumental to the performances related to your participation to the congress and also for free delivery of documentation related to other congresses or initiatives of the Company or of the other companies of the AIM Group. Such treatments are performed through manual elaboration or electronic or automated instruments, in a manner which is strictly correlated to the aim pursued and guarantees the confidentiality and the security of personal data. The treatment holder may avail itself of other companies of AIM Group and/or subjects which it trusts (herein after "Third Companies"), to carry out, as autonomous treatment holders technical or organisational activities such as: printing, enveloping, transmission, transportation and handling of communications to clients, data-processing or data-processing advice. Your consent also covers the treatments performed by such Third Companies, indication of the identity of which is available free of charge upon request to the Responsible for Treatment. In addition to the Third Companies, the personal data can be communicated to scientific associations, publisher, financial and bank intermediaries, as well as companies participating to the congress with promotional functions. Article 13 of the law 675/1996 grants you specific rights. In particular, you have the right to know at any time which your data in posses of the Company are and how these data are used. You also are entitle to request the updating, integration, modification or cancellation of such data or otherwise to request their blockage and to their treatment. It is pointed out that the cancellation and the blockage refer to the data treated in violation of the law; for integration a specific interest must be claimed. The right to oppose can be always exercised with respect to commercial and marketing material referable to direct sales or market researches; in the other cases, opposition presupposes a legitimate cause. Requests pursuant to art. 13 and those pertaining to the indication of identity of the other responsible of the treatment can be addressed to the attention of the Responsible for Treatment in person of the AIM's pro tempore managing director, domiciled at the registered office of the Company, via Adelaide Ristori, 38, 00197 Rome.
(Date and signature for the authorisation to the treat and communicate the data as described in the information)
